UN Is A Campaign Issue

The main speaker, Rev. Curran, made a forceful address, which blended well with the fine address made by Dr. Gordanier, who was presented by Mr. Ward.

The spirit of the evening impressed the importance of uniting all true Christians against Atheistic Communism so as to preserve America and Religious Freedom.

HART URGES DELEGATES TO RETURN TO PRACTICES AND POLICIES THAT MADE AMERICA A MOST DESIRABLE PLACE TO CALL HOMELAND

In Council Letter No. 193, recently issued Mr. Merwin K. Hart, President of the National Economic Council, Inc, addresses a plea to each Delegate to the Republican National Convention, as follows:

We address you because you are both patriotic and intelligent.

For 144 years all political parties in America supported the kind of Republic the Fathers founded in 1789.

Then F. D. Roosevelt, breaking away from the principles that had made us strong and great, led a movement towards Marxist Socialism — a movement that, unless reversed, will destroy America's independence.

In 1936, in 1940, and again in 1944, the Republican Party, unwittingly yielding to the same Marxist forces, vainly imagined it could defeat New Deal philosophy by itself adopting the same line.

The political question of today is — will your convention, meeting June 21 at Philadelphia, follow the lead of those three former campaigns?

Or, heeding what the people said in November, 1946, will you give them a real leader and a real issue in November, 1948?

If the delegates fail in this, then, from the standpoint of America, they might as well not meet.

* * * *

In spite of tons of propaganda, we believe you deem the United States of America the greatest, best and freest country on earth, and you mean to keep it so. Your own intelligence tells you that prosperity and freedom are no accidents: that they come from selection and effort exercised under our incomparable Constitution. Good measures must be adopted, and bad measures rejected. But, after good courses are chosen, you know well that ceaseless effort must be expended to make them work, and eternal vigilance observed to insure we keep them.

The exercise of free judgment is the most precious right of citizenship. In your case, as a delegate, the right is even more precious, for upon the way you exercise it the future of our country will depend. Therefore we ask you to make up your own mind on the issues. And, if you have reason to feel that real issues are not being presented, insist that they be brought out for your decision.

The overshadowing issue of our time is whether our people and our nation are to remain free. Our Constitution was designed to maintain the freedom of both. By its guarantees, its checks and balances, it is framed to preserve individual liberties to every citizen. By asserting the independence of the United States against the world,

TRUMAN TOUR PURELY POLITICAL, BUT NOT POLITICALLY PURE

President Uses Public Funds for Campaigning, and Urges Spending Public Funds in Impossible Attempt to Buy Friendships in Foreign sible Attempt to Buy Friendships in Foreign Lands.

(by Rev. Edward Lodge Curran, PhD.)

Since President Truman is a product of the old Pendergast political machine in Missouri, the President's assurance that his present tour is "non-political" is slightly naive.

The President's remarks about how he epects to handle the Republican controlled Congress when he gets back to Washington is an admission that the presidential tour has at least a political cellophane wrappen around it.

If the tour is political, President Truman has no right to use government funds to pay for his epenses. The President is entitled to make a political tour just as much as any other potential presidential candidate. In that case, however, he should be using his own personal funds or he should petition the National Democratic Committee to underwrite his barnstorming. Simple, elementary justice requires this.

Furthermore, it is unfair for the President to utilize the free use of the big radio networks to deliver his speeches under the guise of a "non-political' tour, while preventing representatives of the Republican Party, whom he is opposing, from securing the same free radio facilities.

The President would have secured greater prestige by staying at home or, at least, by announcing that he would indulge in certain specific political presidential speeches, along the way.

The American people are getting sick and tired of the way in which their money is being thrown around in Washington. They are weary of being told that the only way to secure the friendship of foreign nations is to buy it. Friendship can never be bought.

The Truman-Vandenberg proposal that we must continue to buy foreign friendships is equivalent to an endorsement of the principle of blackmail. American citizens are beginning to ask how much they must keep on paying just to have England and France and all the other kindly Nations demand at the pistol point of threatening to go Communistic. If we must pay and pay and pay for friendship, the day will come when the American Nation will have nothing left with which to pay and no friendship from the payments already made. In other words, the world must be saved instead of bought from Communism.

President Truman's statements denouncing the efforts made by the House of Representatives to rationalize ERP expenditures is another proof that the President's tour is purely political rather than politically pure.

MARXISTS HELP START WORLD GOVERNMENT

MANY PROMINENT CITIZENS UNKNOWINGLY AID FABIANS AND OTHERS IN DRIVE TO NULLIFY 'FOUR FREEDOMS' AND ESTABLISH BOLSHEVISM

The writer knows full well that COMMON SENSE could be more popular and have three times as many subscribers if we would just try to be popular with the general public. And how would we do that? By confining our efforts to only those who are known Communists and who do not enjoy the confidence of the public. It nounce that Henry Wallace, who is not a Communist (but at the same time one of Stalin's most valuable men). But there are other papers to do that.

COMMON SENSE also knows about these "small ones" who are well-known to the public,

UNITED NATIONS IS ISSUE IN PRESIDENTIAL FIGHT

it is framed to defend that internal individual freedom against threat from without.

The founders of our country knew well that both internal and external freedom go hand in hand. Each is necessary to the other. If one is lost, the other is lost. That is why they insisted both upon constitutional guarantees of personal freedom and the creation of a union strong enough to keep its independence. Webster knew this when, in his reply to Hayne on January 26, 1830, he cried, "Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseparable!"

Today the assault upon liberty is directed against both these constitutional ramparts. The assault is not now just beginning; it has been going on for more than sixteen years. It aims to filch, bit by bit, step by step, from the American people those individual liberties without which life is not worth living. And it aims as well, with consummate skill, to take from us the external independence of the United States.

The United States is not the only country in the world where this struggle is going on. The attack upon liberty here and abroad follows the same pattern wherever it appears.

* * * *

Today the British citizen has no right to food or clothing unless he has "registered" and received his "identity card" and "ration book." His freedom of movement is limited by gasoline and money rationing. eH is liable either to military or forced labor conscription ("The Control of Engagements Order," Nov. 3, 1947). If he has a dwelling, he may not buy new furniture, a bed or bedding, without an official permit, which is hard to get. He may not build a house. He may not manufacture or export, save under license, and then only such goods and in such quantities as bureaucracy directs. Coal, railroads and civil aviation have been "nationalized," with other steps to follow. These are not Spartan measures of self-denial resulting from the war. They are weapons of a Socialist government to destroy private enterprise and initiative. Yet every appeal "to work harder and produce more" has been accompanied by penalties against harder work and more production!

* * * *

New Deal propaganda has persuaded a Congress, supposedly Republican-controlled, to the to the ineffable delusion, that the way to stop the slavery of Bolshevism is to embrace the slavery of Socialism.

* * * *

If the Republican Party comes to power this year, it must make a choice. It can simply substitute Republican jobholders for Democratic jobholders, and continue meekly on down the New Deal path. Or, in a mighty upsurge of American intelligence and patriotism, it can reverse the course of the last sixteen years and give us an American policy of liberty at home and independence abroad.

You must make your solemn choice. For this is one of those world-moments when a direction may be reversed if enough people care enough, and are willing to work hard enough, to reverse it. No impersonal forces shape human history. History's record, under God, is the record of human decisions and human efforts. Communists and their kin try to paralyze us with such words as "inevitable," and "historic necessity." But "necessity" is the plea for every infringement of human freedom, the argument of tyrants and the creed of slaves."

* * * *

Victory in November for the Republican Party is by no means sure. A great deal can happen between now and then. The election may be held in the midst of another "crisis," manufactured or real. With a fumbling, "me-too" platform and a fumbling, "me-too" candidate, the Republican Party could meet a final and crushing defeat. To imagine the collectivists will not pull something out of their bag of tricks, as a last desperate device to keep control over America, is to be simple-minded. What the trick will be we do not know. It might be foreign war, with the campaign set to the old tune, "Don't change horses!"

* * * *

Federal expenses and the Federal beaucracy have been swollen out of all proportion to any real need. Appropriations approved by a Republican Congress are greater this year than in any peace-time year in our history. The load upon the backs of those who earn and produce has become well-nigh unendurable. The bureaucracy is a menace to our economic health and to our political freedom. Its effect in favor of the party in power. In fact it has done so every year except 1946.

Federal doles, grants and loans to foreign countries, extend upon old pleas of "emergency" and "crisis," today threaten us with runaway inflation. They are sapping the natural resources and diverting the manufactured products we need to keep our own economic machine running. Unless a halt is called in our prodigality, we shall face economic ruin at home about the time that we have given Europe the means to undersell us in the world's markets.

In all of these instances the Republican Party, to give the people clear alternatives, must speak clearly in the campaign and act decisively if it is put in power. Our inflated money must be made good again. Inflation is a disease of paper currencies and government-debt; it does not stem from permitting the citizen to procure and keep gold. Paper currencies and deficit financing can be "managed" to promote public and private ruin.

Federal expenses, the Federal bureaucracy and Federal taxes must and CAN be reduced by at least one-third. Only so can the venture capital necessary to the health of private enterprise be accumulated and put to work. A large part of our tax money goes for the misnamed "European Recovery Program" on the pretext of "crisis!" If we are not to ruin America we shall have to call a halt to squandering our wealth to buy dubious ill-will abroad, when what Europe needs most of all is to get to work and provide work-incentives. Our loans and gifts will accomplish no permanent good so long as we pay the bills for its inefficient Socialist regimes. The moment we stop our dole they will have to go back to work. Our "aid" is really a tragedy for the industrious, freedom-loving peoples of Europe.

We are today confronted with threats to the external liberty of America—that national independence upon which every internal freedom of every citizen depends.

To mince words would be no compliment to your intelligence. UN and all that it stands for is the implacable enemy of all that the Constitution of the United States stands for. If UN "succeeds," it will be only because the United States will have ceased to be sovereign and free. Already UN has created a vast spiderweb of agencies designed to entrap the economic, political and social life of the whole world into an all-embracing collectivism. It is a scheme to siphon off the remaining resources of the United States. It the U.S.A. continues with UN (maintained chiefly at our expense), we shall lose our sovereignty and our economic and social freedom. Ultimately we shall face a world held in bondage and terror by an Atomic Development Authority (ADA) responsible to none other than itself, supreme over national governments, though they may still exist in name, with the absolute power to destroy entire nations overnight.

Not separable in fact from the design for world domination through UN and its agencies is the phenomenon known as Political Zionism. To say this is not anti-Jewish but rather the reverse. For the majority of American Jews appear to abhor Political Zionism, but are intimidated and silenced by a strident minority of their people who promote it for veiled purposes. Some Jews, notably the American Council for Judaism, have spoken out valiantly as true Americans against the Zionist aggression which seeks to dispossess the Arabs of Palestine from their thousand-year homeland, and which rightly makes suspect the loyalty to America of every Political Zionist.

Americans should examine with open minds the claims of Political Zionism, and go far deeper than the spurious representation that it reflects merely the desire of an ancient people to return to its "homeland." Only a small fraction of the Jews of the world could possibly be accommodated there. Jewish tribes took the land by conquest nearly three thousand years ago, exercised intermittent control for a few centuries, then lost it by conquest. Since then it has passed through various hands—by conquest. Arabs have been the majority inhabitants for thirteen centuries, accompanied by a few Jews and a greater number of Christians. Christian people who have vaguely thought that "God gave the land to the Jews" so that we ought to help them dispossess the Arabs, had better examine the terms under which God gave them the land in the first place. They were promised the land upon the condition of obedience and told that if they were not obedient God would take it from them. God did take it from them, and the prophets of Israel declared in the Old Testament it was taken from them for that reason.

Christian prophecy speaks of a return of Jews to Palestine in the last days, at the return of Christ, but only when they have repented and turned Him whom they first rejected. It is notorious that Political Zionists who have swarmed into Palestine are irreligious and bear a special hatred to Christianity and its Divine Founder. How any Christian can be deluded into thinking it a Christian duty to aid Zionists, who are too often atheists, to reconquer the land made Holy by Christ, is hard to understand.

The immoral attempt of Zionists to take Arab land by force and to set up a government based upon the rights of an invading minority as against a majority long in possession, is of no interest of the United States. For us to support it, either directly or through UN, is to contend that German aggression is evil while Jewish agrression is good.

PROPAGANDISTS FEAR PUBLICITY

"In the experiences of this committee nothing could be clearer than that Communists hate the light of publicity, which exposes their aims and methods A recent editorial in the Daily Worker, official newspaper of the Communist Party, demands that the work of this committee to investigate un-American activities must not go on. Communists have good reasons to fear critlcism which focuses the attention of the American people upon their sinister purposes and reprehensible methods. Communism will not be able to advance one step in the face of a fearless and complete exposure of its true nature. (Dies Com. Report. House Report No. 2, p. 30)

THREE POPES WARNED AGAINST COMINTERNISM

ROBERT BEST DESCRIBES ENCYCLICALS ISSUED IN 1848, 1878 AND 1937, WHEREIN PONTIFFS PLEADED FOR REJECTION OF ATHEISTIC MARXISTS

(Editor's Note: Herewith we bring Instalment II of a series of exposures and revelations of and by Robert H. Best concerning his years long activities as what he terms "A Christocratic Warrior In Civilization's Crusade Against Cominternism." Those who missed the first instalment are invited to send in subscriptions retroactive in include the issue which contained it. Such orders we shall gladly fill as long as our supply of back copies lasts.)

By the time these words appear in print bookstores and publishers throughout the US.A. will have been deluged, I trust, with orders for three potentially epoch-making Encyclicals promulgated by the Holy See.

To these Papal Encyclicals I invited the special attention of the world at large in several ways during my recent "trial" in Boston, Massachusetts, on a trumped-up charge of treason, and in various statements to representatives of newspapers and news agencies following my "conviction" as a "traitor" at this "trial."

If either America or any other part of the world is ever to be made secure against The Soviet-Savagery of Cominternism this can be done, and will be done, only on the basis provided by these Encyclicals and certain others of earlier date. This fact I explained as well as I was permitted to explain at my "trial;" and this fact I shall continue to proclaim as long as God wills circumstances which enable me so to do.

The three potentially epoch-making Papal Enclycals in question are "Rerum Novarum," "Quadragesimo Annno," and "Atheistic Communism," which were issued in May 1891, May 1931, and March 1937, respectively. Think not for a moment, however, that it was only In The Year Of Our Lord 1937 that The Holy See became aware of the menace which we now know as The Bolshevist Beast, The Beast of Bolshevism, and/or Cominternism.

On the contrary!

Unknown to, or rather unrealized by, the great majority of Catholics and Non-Catholics alike, Cominternism was denounced by The Apostolic See almost as soon as it was conceived in its modern form; and was agin denounced as soon as it began first to show signs of popularity-gaining strength among thoughtless persons.

On November 9th, 1846, for instance, in The Encyclical "Qui Pluribus," Pope Pius IX solemnly condemned Cominternism as "that infamous doctrine of so-called Communism which is absolutely contrary to the natural law itself; and which, if once adopted, will utterly destroy the rights, property, and possessions of all men, and even society itself."

Also, one December 28, 1878, in The Encyclical "Quod Apostolici Numeris" Pope Leo XIII warned with due solemnity against Cominternism by declaring, that "Communism is a fatal plague which insinuates itself into the very marrow of human society only to bring about its ruin."

"Qui Pluribus," be it noted, was issued more than a century ago; while "Quod Apoltolici Numeris" has been available as a guide to mankind for almost three quarters of a century! To neither of these warnings did any of the world's so-called statesmen pay any attention, however; nor, with few exceptions, did those in positions of leadership give heed when Pope Pius XI declared unequivocably in The Papal Encyclical "Atheistic Communism" on March 13, 1937, that "Communism is intrinsically wrong, and no one who would save Christian Civilization may collaborate with it in any undertaking whatever."

To both these and other Papal Encyclicals I, Robert H. Best, not only gave heed as soon as I learned of them but, (although a Non-Catholic), acted on and in accordance with them. And it is for this reason that Moscow's Christ-Killer Cominternist Conspirators have resolved to "put me out of circulation" by calling me "Traitor Best."

HOW READERS ARE MISLED

RABBI SPEAKS AT MEETING CALLED ANTI-SEMETIC BY ONE REPORTER

On the evening of June 16, the writer attended an Anti-Communist meeting at St. the Nicholas Arena, 67th St. and Amsterdam Ave, New York City, which had been called by the rank and file of New York unions to protect anti-Communist members from losing their positions for criticizing Communist Union Leaders

Three employees of Bloomingdale's had been fired from the union because they criticized Communist leaders. The Union then demanded that Bloomingdale's also fire them.

The main speaker, Rabbi Benjamin Schultz; the Rev Father George Kelly, and a Protestant Minister made addresses.

Near the end of the meeting the writer waited at a telephone booth to make a call, and two of the top "rank and file" men were listening to the loud report being made over the phone to the Daily Worker and we all were surprised to learn that the reporter was claiming that the meeting was a continual harrangue and definitely anti-Semetic.

This was so contrary to what we, who had attended the meeting knew as facts, that one of the men incharge of the meeting remarked: "That is funny. this is Anti-Semetic, and a Rabbi is on the platform as the main speaker".

We enlightened the new crusader against Communism by telling him that he should know that all Anti-Communist efforts are called Anti-Semetic, but that the Arabs don't object — and they are the Semites. When we left him he was trying to figure it out.

MARXISM SPONSORS COMMUNISM TO HELP WORLD GOVERNMENT

but our policy is to smoke out and expose those in high places who we know to be Marxists conspiring to overthrow our government, or those who are knowingly or unknowingly dupes or tools of the Marxist Invisible Government.

When we mention men in high places, although we do not say they are Communists, the mention of their names shock many who have not taken time to thoroughly investigate the matter. They cannot associate the person named with Atheistic Communism and so don't think we know what we are doing. Those who have the key to this Invisible Government understand and fit our information into the picture.

When we mention men like David Niles, Geo. C. Marshall, Felix Frankfurter, Morris Ernst, Clark Eichelberger, David Lilienthal, Joseph Davies, it is because these men are dupes or Marxists. As long as we are deceived by these men, we will get nowhere in combatting Marxism.

For instance, Harry Truman is unknowingly a helpless tool of Marxism. Harold F.D.R Stassen is a tool, possibly unknowingly; George C Marshall, supposed Secretary of State, is a tool knowingly. Mayor O'Dwyer of New York, a Catholic, has been trapped and tied; he has to go along with the Marxists or he commits poilitical suicide in New York. Hence he opposes the Mundt Bill, is kind to Henry Wallace, and renders many other services to Marxists while Red fronts find it good business to hire his brother, Paul, as their attorney.

Lenin said: "For every Communist, there are ten others ready to do his work." COMMON SENSE smokes out those who, for one reason or another, act as tools or lend their names to the program of conditioning America for Communism. That is not a popular task but we do it. The Marxists' most effective helpers are not the card-carrying party members themselves but some of the wealthiest men in the United States who are behind Marxist World Government.

There are several popular books on Communism which it is well to read, as they explain what a terrible thing Communism is, but they do not tell what is behind it or how to stop it. Only a comparatively few people in the United States are in position to give the public this information and have the courage to do so. Certainly it cannot be learned from the radio or newspapers which carry advertising.

This is why Communism is unchecked in the United States. Marxists' Invisible Government is the hub and heart of this octopus which has upset the world. Its tenacles are Communism, Socialism, Fabianism and World Government — and there are many who believe that the United States is in far greater danger from World Government than from Communism. Some of those actively pushing World Government now speak against Communism, which they have used as a "front." This trickery diverts attention from World Government.

These four branches of Marxism have at least 700 fronts under unsuspecting names; they reach into all walks of life — our government, education, labor unions, organizations. Nearly all who fight Communism are just hitting one of those tenacles on the end with a little stick, for they do not understand the nature of the enemy.

COMMON SENSE goes after the heart and body of this octopus. Naturally, the use of certain names shocks those who art not fully informed. They are not yet ready to receive the truth any more than they were a few years ago to be told that F.D.R was a swindler, double-crosser, and Stalin's Pal — which is now common knowledge.

There are hundreds in Washington who are either Marxists or helpless tools, working like bees to replace our government with a Marxist World Government. These Marxists are a smart, deceptive lot. Help COMMON SENSE to smoke them out.
